For 25 years, C-SPAN's SPAN and Booknotes programs have brought viewers and readers unforgettable stories from the world of public affairs, American history, and beyond. Now, in the captivating anthology 25 Years of Stories from SPAN & Booknotes, these remarkable narratives are collected in one remarkable volume.

From intimate conversations with world leaders and groundbreaking authors to eyewitness accounts of historic events and personal stories of triumph and resilience, this anthology is a testament to the transformative power of storytelling. Through the lens of oral history, these stories offer a unique and engaging perspective on the events that have shaped our world.

With contributions from a diverse array of voices, including presidents, politicians, journalists, authors, and everyday Americans, 25 Years of Stories from SPAN & Booknotes provides a fascinating glimpse into the human experience. Readers will encounter:

- Jimmy Carter's reflections on his childhood and his journey to the White House
- Hillary Clinton's insights into her life as a lawyer, First Lady, and Secretary of State
- Barack Obama's personal story of faith and his vision for the future
- Bill Clinton's candid conversation with James Patterson about his presidency and his post-presidential life
- Maya Angelou's powerful poetry and her reflections on race, equality, and the American Dream
- John McCain's moving account of his experiences as a prisoner of war and his lifelong service to his country
- Colin Powell's insights into the challenges and rewards of leadership
- Madeleine Albright's inspiring story of her journey from a refugee to the United States' first female Secretary of State
- And many more!

This anthology is more than just a collection of stories; it is a testament to the power of narrative to connect us, inspire us, and help us make sense of the world around us. Whether you are a history buff, a political junkie, or simply someone who enjoys a good story, 25 Years of Stories from SPAN & Booknotes is sure to captivate and inform.
