What is Bargue Drawing?

Bargue drawing is a method of figure drawing that was developed in the 19th century by Jean-Léon Gérôme. Gérôme was a French artist who is considered one of the greatest academic painters of his time.

Gérôme's method of teaching drawing involved copying the works of the old masters. He believed that by copying the great works of art, students could learn the techniques and principles that the old masters had used.

Bargue plates are a collection of drawings that were created by Gérôme's students. These plates are based on the works of the old masters, and they provide a valuable resource for students who want to learn classical drawing techniques.
