Foreigner 10th Anniversary Edition: A Landmark in Rock History

In the annals of rock music, Foreigner's self-titled debut album stands tall as a resounding testament to the genre's enduring allure. Released in 1977, this seminal work captivated audiences with its soaring melodies, infectious hooks, and unforgettable anthems.

To commemorate the album's illustrious 10-year journey, a special 10th Anniversary Edition was released in 1987, offering a treasure trove of musical delights for fans and collectors alike. This deluxe edition not only boasts a meticulously remastered version of the original album, but also unveils an array of previously unreleased gems that further showcase the band's creative brilliance.

The Original Masterpiece, Remastered

The centerpiece of the 10th Anniversary Edition is undoubtedly the remastered version of Foreigner's debut album. Utilizing state-of-the-art technology, the album's original recordings have been meticulously enhanced, resulting in an exceptional listening experience that breathes new life into the timeless tracks.

The remastering process has revealed a depth and clarity previously unheard, allowing listeners to fully appreciate the intricate arrangements and soaring vocal harmonies. From the iconic opening riff of "Feels Like the First Time" to the thunderous of "Cold as Ice," each song has been meticulously restored to its pristine glory.

Unveiling Hidden Treasures

Beyond the remastered album, the 10th Anniversary Edition unveils a treasure trove of previously unreleased bonus tracks that provide a tantalizing glimpse into Foreigner's creative process during this iconic era.

Among these hidden gems are two previously unreleased studio recordings: "Fool for You Lovin'" and "Women." These tracks showcase the band's signature blend of catchy melodies and infectious grooves, offering fans a chance to discover new facets of their beloved band.

The bonus tracks also include a captivating live recording of "Hot Blooded," captured during the band's electrifying 1978 tour. This live version crackles with energy, showcasing the band's undeniable stage presence and the raw power of their live performances.

A Collector's Dream

For collectors, the 10th Anniversary Edition of Foreigner is an absolute must-have. In addition to the remastered album and bonus tracks, this deluxe edition includes a wealth of additional materials that offer an in-depth look at the band's early days.

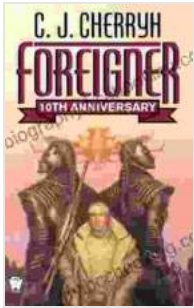

The package features a lavishly illustrated booklet that chronicles the making of the album, featuring rare photographs, archival interviews, and exclusive commentary from band members. This booklet provides an intimate glimpse into the songwriting process, recording sessions, and the personal stories behind the iconic tracks.

Furthermore, the 10th Anniversary Edition comes housed in a deluxe digipak that exudes elegance and durability. The digipak's sleek design and sturdy construction ensure that this special edition will remain a treasured collectible for years to come.

A Triumphant Testament to Rock 'n' Roll

Ten years after its initial release, Foreigner's self-titled debut album continues to resonate with generations of rock music fans. The 10th Anniversary Edition is a triumphant testament to the album's enduring legacy, offering a definitive listening experience that captures the essence of this iconic work.

Whether you're a longtime fan or a newcomer to Foreigner's timeless music, the 10th Anniversary Edition of Foreigner is an essential addition to your music collection. Relive the magic of the original album, discover previously unreleased gems, and gain an exclusive glimpse into the band's creative journey. Immerse yourself in this exceptional collection and experience the enduring power of Foreigner's rock 'n' roll legacy.
