2. Practice on paper first: Experiment with different techniques and designs before painting on your child's face.
3. Start with simple designs: Begin with easy-to-paint animals or characters, and gradually move on to more complex designs.
4. Be patient: Face painting takes time and effort, so don't rush through it.
5. Let them choose their design: Give your child the freedom to choose their favorite animal, superhero, or Halloween character.

6. Protect their eyes: Avoid painting near their eyes, and use a damp cloth to clean any paint that gets into them.
7. Seal their masterpiece: Once you're finished, apply a light coat of hypoallergenic hairspray to set the paint in place.
