Excerpt

"In the cockpit of an F-18, you are surrounded by a symphony of noise and vibration. The engine roars in your ears, the controls vibrate in your hands, and the wind screams past the canopy. It is an exhilarating and terrifying experience, all at the same time.

"But there is also a sense of peace in the cockpit of an F-18. You are in complete control of the aircraft, and you can feel the power of the machine beneath you. You are also surrounded by a team of professionals who are working together to achieve a common goal.

"I have flown many different aircraft in my career, but the F-18 is by far my favorite. It is a versatile and powerful aircraft that can perform a wide range of missions. I have flown the F-18 in combat, on training missions, and in air shows. It is an aircraft that I will never forget."

"My Life In War, Peace, And The Cockpit Of The Navy's Most Lethal Aircraft, The F-18" is a fascinating and inspiring account of one man's life in service to his country. It is a story of courage, sacrifice, and adventure that will appeal to anyone interested in military history, aviation, or the human spirit.
