

Novak Djokovic's Decade-Long Chase at Roland Garros Ends in Triumph

Novak Djokovic's decade-long pursuit of the Roland Garros title finally came to an end on Sunday, as he defeated Stefanos Tsitsipas in straight sets to claim his second French Open crown. The victory marked a significant milestone in Djokovic's career, as he became the first man in the Open Era to have won all four Grand Slams twice.

Djokovic had been chasing the Roland Garros title since 2008, when he first reached the final. He lost to Rafael Nadal in that final, and would go on to lose to the Spaniard in the final again in 2012, 2014, and 2018. In 2019, Djokovic finally broke through, defeating Dominic Thiem in the final to win his first French Open title.
