Dear Diary,

I can't believe I'm actually writing this, but I'm a mom. A real, live, bona fide mom. I still can't believe it sometimes. I mean, I'm 43 years old. I never thought I would have kids. But here I am, with a beautiful little baby girl.

It's been a whirlwind of emotions these past few weeks. I'm so happy and grateful to be a mom, but I'm also exhausted, overwhelmed, and hormonal. I'm not going to lie, it's been tough. But it's also been the most amazing experience of my life.

I'm learning so much about myself as a mom. I'm learning how to be patient, how to be selfless, and how to love unconditionally. I'm also learning how to change diapers, feed a baby, and get by on very little sleep.

It's not always easy, but it's always worth it. I wouldn't trade it for the world.

Love,

A New Mum Aged 43
