We Are Water Protectors is a powerful and moving story about the importance of protecting water, the Earth, and all living things. Written by Carole Lindstrom and illustrated by Michaela Goade, this book is a must-read for anyone who cares about the future of our planet.

The story follows Winona, a young Native American girl who lives on a reservation in North Dakota. When a black snake threatens her community's water supply, Winona uses her voice and her traditional knowledge to fight back. With the help of her ancestors and the animals who live in the nearby river, Winona is able to protect her people and their water.

We Are Water Protectors is a beautiful and inspiring story that teaches children about the importance of water, the power of standing up for what you believe in, and the strength of community. This book is a must-have for any classroom or library.
